TOM AND HIS BOOK

Extracts From the Alliance
Man's Charges.

ARRAIGNMENT OF CONGRESS

The Preface Promises a Great Deal—He Writes of Jags and the Tammany
Boodlers' Wealth.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Alliance Congressman "Tom" Watson's campaign book, entitled, "Not a Revolt—It is a Revolution," would probably not have passed through more than one addition but for the big advertisement given it by the recent sensational proceedings in the house. The curiosity of many persons to see what it is really like will probably sell a few scores of the copies which Jerry Simpson's oldest boy is now hawking about the city.

The book is a poorly printed pamphlet of 400 pages, in which Watson has thrown together a so-called "History of Political Parties of the United States," together with several chapters of demagogical observations on the alleged failure of the democratic party to redeem its pledges to the people.

Mr. Watson's preface is not modest. It is brief, but comprehensive. He says: "In order that editors, speakers, lecturers and voters might have in the convenient storehouse of one volume all the scattered information now contained in many, and in order that they might have a brief statement of the line of argument which we have adopted upon all essential issues, I have hastily written this book. I have endeavored to fill it to the brim with facts—important facts, undisputed facts. I have tried to make it an armory from which people's party champions can draw every weapon of offense and defense. The appendix will be found a mine of rich suggestion and information."

His Remarks to Congress.
The final chapter of the book contains the paragraphs to which exception has been taken on the floor of the house. Mr. Watson says: "There is nothing more singular than the infatuation of a system which has been weighed and found wanting and over which have been heaped all the doom: Belshazzar is repeated at every epoch, and wherever the man reaches the last evening on earth his feast is certain to be had. Revelry and wine and music within; the tread of Cyrus and the Persians without. The pampered aristocrats will listen to no warning until Daniel strides into the hall and the laugh of the voluptuary freezes on the lips of the quaking coward."

The congress now sitting is one illustration. Pledges to reform they have not reformed. Pledges to economy they have not economized. Pledges to legislate they have not legislated. Extravagance has been the order of the day. Absenteeism was never so pronounced. Lack of purpose was never so clear. Lack of common sense and prudence was never more glaring. Drunken members have reeled about the aisles—a disgrace to the republic. Drunken speakers have debated grave issues on the floor, and in the midst of maudlin ramblings have been heard to say: "Mr. Speaker, where was I?"

Tammany Lamented.
Watson devotes a chapter to a number of prominent New Yorkers whom he styles "Tammany Boodlers." Mayor Grant, he says, was an alderman for two years, receiving $2,000 a year, and sheriff for three years, receiving only five cents, and yet left the latter office worth $200,000. Corporation Counsel William H. Clark is also put down as having made a great deal of money out of the city. Bourke Cockran is said to have made $40,000 a year as Mayor Clark's counsel, while Grant was sheriff. He is now said to enjoy a practice worth $75,000 to $100,000 per annum.

Richard Croker is said to have left the public service with $100,000 in cash. Mr. Watson repeats a story of the $10,000 received for "Flamingo" from Mayor Grant. Commissioner Gilroy, from John J. Scannell and Bernard F. Martin are all put down as having drawn from $50,000 to $125,000 from the city of New York.

Timothy D. Sullivan, Thomas D. Shields and Bernard O'Rourke are included in their list of rich liquor dealers who have made a good thing out of offshooting in New York.

E. L. Ridgway, "Governor Hill's friend," is credited with a large income and Patrick Dwyer is put down as having made a barrel of money in the liquor business, besides holding several offices.

Watson flirts shy of Speaker Crisp in his book, but indirectly charges him with being responsible for the defeat of the silver bill, which, he says, might easily have passed had the speaker been willing to bring in the silver rule.

SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Latter May Agree on a World's Fair Compromise.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The senate in the course of an hour and a half session today cleared off the only three unopposed house bills remaining on its calendar, and then waited for some sign of agreement from the house on the sundry civil bill. A motion by Mr. Pettigrew of South Dakota, calling on the secretary of war for a report of all officers court-martialed during the past three years, drew out a rather animated discussion, and was shelved, as was also a proposition by Mr. Call of Florida, to send a special joint committee to investigate Cuba and other West India islands. Without doing anything further of interest the senate adjourned until tomorrow.

The house was in session but two hours today and nothing was accomplished. Several votes were taken on dilatory motions, but no quorum appeared at any time. The proposition submitted by the world's fair advisory committee to reconsider the vote on the sundry civil bill and place it in conference and vote for $2,500,000 as a direct gift to the fair in a separate bill not later than Saturday will probably be acceptable to all parties, and an adjournment is looked for by Monday.

Agreed to Compromise.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The democratic caucus this afternoon agreed upon the mode of procedure as outlined by the ten democrats appointed to arrange the compromise. A separate caucus will be held before the house, but the members are not bound to vote for any stated amount to dispose of the matter on or before Saturday.

Comptroller Lacy's Bank.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The Bankers' National bank of Chicago, capital $1,000,000, ex-Comptroller Lacy President, was today authorized by Comptroller Hepburn to begin business.

LAWYER FOR GOVERNOR.
The Democrats of Minnesota Nominate Him by Acclamation.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 3.—In the democratic convention this afternoon it seemed that nothing could prevent the nomination of Lawler. Every obstacle had been removed from his path and the Hennepin delegation had been unable to find a man to oppose him. There is only one thing in the platform to distinguish it from other platforms, and that is the Park school plank, which endorses the Chicago plank. This will bring the school question to the front in the coming campaign, especially as Lawler is a Catholic. The plank was inserted at the instance of a young Lutheran minister, a delegate from Duluth, who promised $5,000 Lutheran votes to the ticket if it was inserted. Lawler was the only name presented to the convention and he was nominated by acclamation amid great enthusiasm. The platform denounces the protective tariff and calls attention to the Homestead affair where the militia of the state is keeping peace in a quarrel between the real and supposed beneficiaries of protection; denounces the "wheat combine" and demands a free and open market at every railroad station. An income tax is favored and a uniform system of the taxation demanded. An amendment to the federal constitution requiring the election of president, vice president and senators by direct vote of the people occupies a prominent part in the resolutions as does one favoring the extension of the presidential term to six years and making the president ineligible for re-election. The contract system at the state prison is condemned.

Joseph Leach of Winona was nominated treasurer. Judge J. C. Nelson of Stillwater was named for attorney general by acclamation and the remainder of the ticket was filled by nominating Judge Thomas Canty of Minneapolis, Daniel Ruck of Mankato and Judge Mitchell, at present supreme justice, and nominated R. M. Chas. Nelson. Upon re-assembling at the evening session the convention proceeded to fill the other places on the ticket. Harry Hawkins of Carlton county was nominated for lieutenant governor by acclamation. For secretary of state, Peter Felson of Goodhue county and H. B. Martin of Minneapolis who received the nomination on the people's party ticket were placed in nomination. Nelson was nominated by a large majority.

Congressional Nominations.
SAVANNAH, Ga., Aug. 3.—Rufus E. Lester was re-nominated by acclamation for congress from the first district of Georgia by the democratic convention here today.

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 3.—William A. Jones was unanimously nominated for congress in the first district by the democrats today.

St. Paul, Aug. 3.—W. S. Hammond was nominated for congress by the democrats of the second district today.

MANKATO, Minn., Aug. 3.—Marshall Arnold has been nominated for congress in the fourteenth district by the democrats today.

PARSONS, Kan., Aug. 3.—T. J. Hudson was nominated for congress by the democrats of the third district today. Some of the delegates to the convention that nominated Mr. Hudson bolted and nominated R. M. Chas. Nelson.

MOBILE, Ala., Aug. 3.—The republicans of the twelfth congressional district today nominated T. A. Rogers of Quincy for congress.

KEARNEY, Aug. 3.—Congressman O. M. Kim was today re-nominated by the party convention of the sixth district.

Democratic Campaign Committee.
New York, Aug. 3.—Chairman Harry of the national democratic committee announced this morning that the campaign committee would meet at headquarters at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning; the thorough organization of the campaign will date from that meeting. It is thought that advisory committees will be named tomorrow. It is practically settled that Senator Gorman will be chosen chairman of the campaign committee.

Adlai Visits Henri.
LOUISVILLE, Aug. 3.—Gen. A. Stevenson, democratic candidate for vice president, arrived in the city shortly after 7 o'clock tonight. A committee of forty men, of which Dr. E. R. Palmer was chairman, met General Stevenson in the city hall, where the guests entered a carriage and were escorted to the residence of Henry Watterson. There they were entertained by the editor and his wife.

Jones' Majority Increasing.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 3.—Additional returns received from back counties are coming in today and it increases the majority of Jones and the regular democratic ticket. Last night it stood like Jones' majority might fall as low as 10,000. He is now assured of 30,000 or more.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT.

He Appreciates the Affection Shown by the Tippecanoe Club.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 3.—At a meeting of the Tippecanoe club of this city today the following letter from President Harrison, addressed to J. D. Doherty, president of the club, was read: "My Dear Sir:—It gives me very great pleasure to receive through you the resolution adopted by my old neighbors and friends of the Tippecanoe club of Indianapolis. I feel with almost tearful emotion the warm way in which you and my home and the many evidences of their respect and affection. As I have said to you before, I count the friendship of such men a great treasure. Will you please convey to the club and to each member of it my personal interest as a neighbor in their health and welfare. Very truly yours, "BENJAMIN HARRISON."

Lowered the Bike Record.

FRANKFURT, Mass., Aug. 3.—The world's mile bicycle record was lowered this afternoon to 2:11 flat by George Taylor at the Massachusetts Athletic club in a trial at Hampden park.

A "CONDITION"—NOT A "THEORY."

UNDER A GRIP CAR

Many Horrified Cable Car Passengers

SEE A MAN HORRIBLY MANGLED

In the Cruel Maw of the Deadly Chicago Grip—He Was Ground to Pieces.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—A most horrible sight was witnessed by two cable train loads of people about 7 o'clock this morning when Milhehn Fisher was instantly killed and almost decapitated by a Cottage Grove avenue grip car at Forty-first street. Fish was a laborer and lived at No. 2,955 Quinn street. He was in Hyde Park last night and shortly before 7 o'clock boarded a north-bound grip car. At forty-first street he leaped from the car without signaling to the conductor to stop.

As he struck the ground he stumbled directly in front of a south-bound train in charge of Conductor George Huffert and Gripman S. W. Coweung. The gripman saw Fisher leap from the north-bound train, but too late to stop his grip car, though he made frantic efforts to do so. Fischer was struck down amid the warning shouts of the passengers, who nearly all observed his actions, and who, horror-stricken, saw his body ground beneath the grip car's wheels. So tightly was the body wedged beneath the grip that the car had to be lifted from the tracks before the remains could be extracted. Fischer had been instantly killed. His head was crushed almost to a pulp and the wheels of the grip car were covered with his blood. Fischer was 45 years of age and leaves a family in poor circumstances.

THREE HOUSES WRECKED.

A Breaking Dam Creates Great Damage in St. Paul.

St. Paul, Aug. 3.—By the breaking of a dam at Page street on the west side at 8:45 this evening three houses were wrecked, two persons were killed and five seriously injured. When the dam broke the water rushed down Page street between Woodbury street and Brown avenue, sweeping the houses that were swept before it like straws, three of them being shot over the bluff to the Kansas City railway track below. Mrs. August Adams and her mother, Mrs. Horn, were crushed in their house. The Adams house was a brick store on Philip Street, the house was swept away and Stocher cut out from among the rafters in a badly injured condition. Philip Cringer's house was also wrecked and two members of his family were seriously injured.

ALONE ON AN ISLAND.

Three Men Left on an Aleutian Isle Exposed to Peril.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Acting Secretary Soley of the navy department today telegraphed Commander Evans, in command of the United States steamer in Behring sea, to dispatch a United States man-of-war to the island of St. Matthew, in Behring sea, and take off three white men left there by the Matthe Dyer of San Francisco a year ago. These men were left with a year's provisions, and the navy department came for the Dyer to return to the island of St. Matthew and take off the men her captain refused for fear he would be seized for entering Behring sea. Thus the men were left to their fate. Similar parties have been discovered by polar bears and it may be even now too late to save these men, but the United States government has decided to make the effort.

CURSED BY A WOMAN.

Five Persons Die Inside of Two Years After a Murder Trial.

OMAHA, Aug. 3.—Two hundred men are dredging and tramping Honey Creek (Iowa) lake endeavoring to find the body of Judge Clarkson, supposed to have been drowned last Friday. Clarkson presided at the trial of Ed Neil for the recently slain Judge Dorothy Jones and pronounced the death sentence. Jo Clark, the abandoned woman who endeavored to clear Neil, pronounced a curse on all that participated in the prosecution. A literary man who was the state's principal witness, Prosecutor Lee, Judge Clarkson and two jurymen have since died. The trial was held less than two years ago.

Broke the Bigamy Record.

BRANDON, Wis., Aug. 3.—Edward Nest, aged nineteen, has been arrested for bigamy. On July 21 he was married to Edith Abel, of the town of Spring Vale, and on the following day he eloped with and married Miss Gertrude Cole of the same town. The run

FOUND BY THE JURY

The Verdict on the Death of the Strikers Is

THAT THERE WAS AN ASSEMBLY

On the Grounds of Carnegie, Phipps & Co. That Was Unlawful—Nobody Named in the Verdict.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—The inquest into the deaths resulting from the riots at Homestead was concluded this afternoon before Coroner McDowell. The jury was out about an hour before their verdict was returned. There were no witnesses examined, the only matter being the charge of the coroner. In his opening remarks the coroner reviewed for what purpose the jury had been selected and sworn, recited what his duty consisted of when called to take action on sudden deaths. The coroner next outlined to the jury the information to be contained in its findings. In conclusion with this he said: "No disagreement between any persons will justify the use of fire arms or felonious assault or shooting or the killing of any person." At 4:40 the verdict was rendered.

Alike for All of Them.
The return in the cases of the seven strikers who were killed reads almost as follows: "That on the death of Silas Wain the jury state that he came to his death while in company of others in unlawful assembly upon the property of Carnegie, Phipps & Co.'s steel works, Millin township, to prevent the landing of two model barges laden with Pinkerton guards to protect said property, and he being struck from a missile from a cannon which had been taken to a gun shot wound in the right arm, and he died of the wounds received."

Removed a Receiver.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 3.—Judge Swaine at noon today set aside Judge Boyd's appointment of B. B. Cable as receiver of the Jacksonville, Tampa, Key West railway and gave both sets of stockholders until 2:30 p. m. to agree upon a suitable person for a receiver. If they cannot agree he will at that hour make a selection himself. The property involved is valued at nearly five millions of dollars.

Resigned the Ermine.
LAS VEGAS, N. M., Aug. 3.—Chief Justice James O'Brien of the New Mexico supreme court has resigned. He expected to receive the nomination for judge in his district in Minnesota yesterday, but was disappointed. He will pursue the practice of law. There are already several candidates for the place.

Col. John A. Rice Dead.
SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 3.—Col. John A. Rice, vice president of the National board of trade, member of the commission for revising the state tax laws and of the commission to prevent anathracite coal waste, died at his home here last midnight, aged 50 years.

Missed Target But Hit Man.
WILKESBARRE, Aug. 3.—While shooting at a target with a revolver at a picnic today at Fairview, George Dalry accidentally shot his friend, Edward Harris, in the rib, killing him instantly. The victim was 18 years of age.

Issue of Truth Seized.
NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—By order of Anthony Comstock this week's issue of the publication Truth has been seized. Comstock objected to one of the illustrations. He didn't think two women in a picture were enough clothes.

Lightweights Matched.
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The California Athletic club today has matched Sol Smith of Los Angeles and John Van Heest of Cincinnati, for a fight at 115 pounds in September.

CATHOLIC ABSTAINERS.

They Denounce the Sale of Liquors at Church Fairs and Picnics.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 3.—The first thing the Catholic Total Abstinence union did this forenoon was to adopt a set of emphatic temperance resolutions, among which were these: "Whereas, the principal argument used by the advocates of keeping the world's fair open on Sundays lies in the assertion that saloons in Chicago are or will be open on Sunday. We believe that Chicago is bound to defend her honor and show by words and deeds that we are a law-abiding people and that the above assertion is groundless and slanderous. Whereas, the laws of the church in America strictly forbid the sale of liquor at church fairs and picnics, and whereas, Catholic societies sometimes use the proceeds of such sale for the purpose of the church, we denounce the use of Catholic societies for such purposes as a filthy veil thrown over a flagrant violation of the laws of the church and as a menace to bring all ecclesiastical authority into contempt." The rest of the morning was given to nuns and a sermon by the Rev. Walter Elliott.

At a street parade in the evening a mass meeting was held at Yonkinson hall. Governor Chase delivered a well-known address, and other addresses were made by Bishop O'Reilly and Archbishop Elder.

Summons the Militia.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 3.—The warrants served out by the strikers yesterday served on Nevil McConnell and James Doherty at the Carnegie steel works. A crowd of strikers joined the men on their way to the depot and it was necessary to summon a company

Summons the Militia.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 3.—The warrants served out by the strikers yesterday served on Nevil McConnell and James Doherty at the Carnegie steel works. A crowd of strikers joined the men on their way to the depot and it was necessary to summon a company of the Eighteenth regiment to disperse them. One of the mob, Thomas Bowen, was arrested and taken to Pittsburgh with the prisoners.

O'DONNELL VISITS MILHOLLAND.
The Strike Leader Has Been the Guest of the Republican Boss.

New York, Aug. 3.—Hugh O'Donnell, the leader of the Homestead strikers, has been in town for several days, the guest of John E. Milholland, the republican leader. Mr. O'Donnell left town last night.

Mr. Magee, too, has been in the city for several days and has had several meetings with O'Donnell at the house of Milholland. It is understood that as a result of the conferences between O'Donnell and Magee negotiations with the Carnegie people have begun and that peace will be made on terms satisfactory on both sides. The negotiations have been conducted from this city, and the meeting with Mr. O'Donnell in New York, it is said, was arranged to avoid publicity until the republicans were ready to spring the story as sensational campaign thunder. It is well known that it has been President Harrison's desire that the Homestead trouble should be settled because the iron industry is fostered by the tariff, and it has been charged that the tariff was responsible for the difficulty over the wages paid to the men. Mr. Milholland is very close to Mr. Reid, and as Mr. Reid's interests politically are identical with those of the president it is supposed that Mr. Milholland has been acting under orders from Washington or Mr. Reid.

ROBERT PINKERTON NOTIFIED.

He Says He Can Be Found at His Desk and Will Not Run Away.

New York, Aug. 3.—Robert Pinkerton was busy at his desk when told that informations had been lodged against him at Pittsburgh for murder and warrants issued.

"This is the first I have heard of it. But it won't make any difference with me. I shall not run away and hide, like Mr. O'Donnell, nor shall I go scurrying around the country like he did on pretended missions. When the officers come for me they will find the right here at my desk. I have done nothing to be afraid of, nor has any one connected with the agency. We did our duty and protected the property and lives of our employers."

Pinkerton Will Surrender.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—William A. Pinkerton, the head of the Chicago office of the Pinkerton detective agency, is out of town, and his whereabouts is unknown. His superintendent said tonight that if the warrants sworn out against him today for the arrest of Mr. Pinkerton was bona fide, he would go to Pittsburgh and give himself up.

H. C. Frick's Child Dead.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—The death is announced of the 3-weeks' old child of H. C. Frick. This is the child who it was said would be named for Charles A. Dana of New York. This was not done, however, and the baby was named Henry Clay Frick, Jr.

Filing Orders From Homestead.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 3.—Every department of the Phoenix Iron company was started up last night for the first time in years. The firm has received a number of orders from Homestead and the works will run double time.

BROTHERHOOD OF CARPENTERS.

The Annual Convention Now in Session. Reports of Officers.

St. Louis, Aug. 3.—The International Brotherhood of Carpenters today listened to the reports of President Kliver and Secretary McGuire. Both reports were referred to the proper committee and will be read at the convention at this session. The report of Secretary McGuire showed that gratifying prospects had been made in the eight-hour movement. The extent of the organization is shown in the following extract of the report: "With 802 local unions, our union brotherhood now extends to every state and territory of the United States and into Mexico, and has a hold in the leading provinces of Canada. We have unions in 724 cities with members in good standing to the number of 31,315." A resolution was reported endorsing Henry George's single tax theory. It was adopted after a lengthy discussion.

S. A. BUDGET & CO. IN TROUBLE.

Great English Firm With American Branches in Difficulty.

New York, Aug. 3.—It is said that the big grain exporting house of S. A. Budget & Co. is in difficulty. This house represents S. H. H. Budget & Co. of Bristol and Samuel Budget & Co. of London and Liverpool, and has a Chicago branch. J. W. Nightingale and A. S. Budget are members of the firm here, which met all the obligations yesterday on the exchange. Mr. Nightingale said regarding the report: "We were worried from London that the house there was in a temporary financial entanglement. We expect that it will be straightened out in a few days and that business will go on as usual. The affair cannot hurt our house here, as it is evidently a separate concern."

American Dental Association.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Aug. 3.—The session of the American Dental association today are being occupied with the reading and discussion of papers and committee reports. It has been practically settled that the next meeting will be held in Chicago at the time of the August meeting of the world's Columbian dental congress, but it is probable that the association business will be transacted there. The committee arranging for the world's congress are busy at work. Dr. C. S. Butler of Buffalo has been selected to represent New York state.

The national association of dental exhibitors has elected the following officers: President, W. E. McGill, Erie, Pa.; vice president, J. Y. Crawford, Nashville, Tenn.; secretary and treasurer, Fred A. Levy, Orange, N. J.

Blame to Take the Strump.

ACQUITTALS, Me., Aug. 3.—The campaign in Maine will be opened by the republicans August 17, and Chairman Manley is busy arranging for the meeting to be held in every section of the state. Ex-Secretary James Doherty at the Carnegie steel works. A crowd of strikers joined the men on their way to the depot and it was necessary to summon a company

GOT THERE IN TIME

The American Relief to Starving Russians

RECEIVED WITH GRATITUDE

Dr. Hubbell of the Red Cross Society Reports the Work Done to Relieve Hunger and Distress in Russia.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Dr. Hubbell, the general field agent of the American Red Cross society, has made a report of his work in Russia distributing the relief cargo of Iowa corn sent over in the ship Tynhead. The cargo arrived at Riga after a voyage of twenty-eight days. Before its arrival the cargo had been apportioned for distribution to eighty-two different persons in as many different places, who were doing practical relief work in the famine district. Also before the arrival of the ship, the field agent had purchased 80,000 bags to enclose the grain before shipment to the interior, in order to save waste in handling and to facilitate distribution. Those in charge of the relief committee requested the Carnegie committee and the people of Riga that no public demonstration be made on its reception, as the demonstration given at the reception of the former relief ships had been sufficient to show their sentiments of gratitude for all relief that might follow. On the arrival of the Tynhead, the governor, city officials, representatives of the Red Cross and the Carnegie committee with American consuls met them. Speeches of the workers were made in a quiet manner. These men worked night and day without sleep for three successive days. The cargo filled 307 Russian cars. In one of the five compartments of the ship, the corn was slightly heated.

Reached Them in Time.

The bakers seemed so successful in using the corn that one would think they had always been accustomed to it. The agent passed through at least ten of the famine-stricken provinces, in most of which he found fair prospects for this year's crop. Typhus was found to be diminishing, but cholera was appearing, and cholera had begun its work in the southern provinces. He speaks very highly in praise of a number of persons that were employed in relief work who refused fees and salaries, and individuals that expended money individually in quiet ways for relief. The vigorous measures of many local governments have done much to avert the suffering that must have followed without such aid, while the general government has done more, in its aggregate appropriations amounting to seventy-five millions of dollars, which no other government has probably ever done under such circumstances. Those who have been active in relief work say that without relief the sufferers must have perished by the thousands, but the aid reached them in time.

Another Mysterious Murder.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—A mysterious murder case is on trial today in Liverpool. A child named Ann Concanon, aged three years and four months, was found dead, head downward, in a closet, in one of the slum districts of Liverpool. The shoes and a portion of the clothing were missing. The child was evidently being murdered. When last seen the child was in the company of an unknown woman who, it is believed, decoyed her away and took her life for the sake of being able to rob the little one. The police are investigating and are already looking for a woman supposed to be the guilty person.

Chose The Fish Inshore.

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 3.—Runners have reached
